Dear Friends

As we embark on a new school year, finish the harvest, start putting gardens to bed and experience the inevitable commercial emphasis towards Halloween and then Christmas, I have been reflecting on just how much we are bombarded by words. Words come at us through the TV, radio, internet, books, newspapers, advertising billboards and even from your vicar and curate! Sometimes we can be overwhelmed with and by words – some beautiful, some helpful, some worthless and some downright dreadful. Is it possible to digest them all? I personally know that I don't and perhaps that is a good thing. In trying to absorb so many words, I wonder just how blind we can become to the world around us. Do our minds ever switch to the ‘observe and listen’ button so we look around and appreciate all the wonders of God’s creation?

At the beginning of August our six churches rang with the sounds of children and their parents and carers getting stuck into indoor and outdoor activities along the theme of 'All God's World'. From Monday to Saturday, using the Messy Church model, children spent time inside and outside each one of our six churches looking carefully at the amazing world in which we live and enjoying the fun and the wonder of each place. We searched for sheep, looked for plants and flowers, listened to the sounds in our churchyard, orienteered, examined ‘mini beasts’ under a microscope and identified birds and butterflies, played giant Jenga and snakes and ladders and walked around one of our villages to spot clues about the history of its community. We were creative too, producing sheep puppets, flower pots, spiders’ webs, ladybugs and daddy long legs and our star ‘make’, an altar frontal which was used at the benefice service in August in Pebworth. At the end of each morning session, we enjoyed refreshments, a bible story, prayer and song together. The theme, All God's World prompted us all to look more carefully at God’s creation. All our activities helped us to be more aware of the wonders of creation and the God-given gifts we have received.

And so, returning to my reflecting about the volume of words which come at us, and the busyness which will happen as children return to school and summer holidays become a memory recorded in photo and video images, I encourage you all to find time in your busy lives to stop and wonder at creation, and recall the words in Genesis which the children learnt at the end of our week of activities:

“God saw everything that He had made, and indeed it was very good” Genesis 1. 31.

And look out for the next Messy Church event when we will explore another theme using bible stories and fellowship in the shape of food, prayer and song together!

With love and blessings.

Celia. Team Curate

Update on the Campaign to Prevent the Diocese Selling Glebe Land for Development

Geoffrey Clifton-Brown MP has written to the Second Church Estates Commissioner, the Rt Hon Caroline Spelman MP, asking her to look into the Parish's complaints to the Church Commissioners about this matter.

Over 200 Parishioners attended the PCC's public meeting in the Village Hall on 19 August to be updated on the campaign and to find out how to get involved to stop this action. Robert McNeil-Wilson and the Lord Dear represented the PCC and welcomed Geoffrey Clifton-Brown MP, Lyndon Stowe, Chairman of the Cotswold District Council and members of Willersey Parish Council.

The Lord Dear acted as Chairman and explained the roles of the Parish Council, PCC and Diocese. He described events since the Diocese's issuing of the mandatory notice of its intention, and how this is likely to fail because the PCC has taken Leading Council's opinion and is working to demonstrate to the Church Commissioners that the notice is so unclear and unspecific as to be meaningless. He also explained how church employees have acted to prevent the PCC from objecting to the Diocese's intentions. On 18 May, at the time that the Churchwarden was finding it difficult to obtain clarity of what the Diocese's opaque letter and notice meant, the Diocesan Secretary, engaged in trying to drive this development forward, held a site meeting on the glebe land. He invited other Diocesan employees; the Benefice Team Vicar, Rev'd Debbie Forman and the Vicar of Chipping Campden, Rev'd Craig Bishop. The Churchwarden's and Willersey parishioners on the PCC were excluded from this meeting and kept unaware of it until it was revealed in a response letter from the Church Commissioners in August. When Rob McNeil-Wilson mentioned his difficulty in obtaining any more information at May's PCC Meeting, three days after the site meeting, the Rev'd Forman pretended a lack of knowledge about the Diocese's intentions, despite having had it explained, on-site, three days earlier and volunteered, then failed, to provide this information in time for the PCC to respond to the Diocese.

Weston rural cinema: September

The label round his neck reads "Please look after this bear. Thank you." When Paddington meets the Brown family city life for the lost and lonely bear seems to have changed for the better; until this rarest specimen catches the eye of a museum taxidermist!

The film will be shown in Weston sub-Edge Village Hall on Thursday 24th September. Doors will open at 7.30 p.m. and the film begins at 8.00 p.m. Tickets are £4.00 at the door. For more information contact Chris Rossington or David White on 01386 849316 or find details on the village website, www.westonsubedge.com.

BROADWAY EMBROIDERY GROUP

Firstly a big thank you to Penny for hosting the August meeting at very short notice. A large group met at Par House, Collin Close to sew and chat. Alison had completed her Christmas Challenge for everyone to see, hopefully it will be on display at the Craft Show.

'Poppies Galore' is the project for September. Members were able to choose which type of poppy they would like to make.

Sandy will lead a mini workshop with members creating poppies with felt and embellished with stitches and beads.

Alison will be showing us a crocheted poppy and Carol will be demonstrating a cross-stitch poppy.

After a productive mornings work we enjoyed a meal at the New Inn.

Next Meeting. 3rd September 10am-1pm, Broadway Methodist Hall.

BLOOD DONING

The next Blood Doning is Monday 28th September, sessions are from 1.00 to 3.30pm and 4.30 to 7.00pm. If you haven't already got an appointment please call 0300 123 23 23.

Please come and support this worthy cause. You can give blood from 17 to 70 years of age and beyond if you are in good health. It only takes a short time and there are light refreshments after.

Donated blood is used for cancer treatment as well as transfusions for people who have lost a large amount due to an accident, surgery etc., but it only has a short shelf life so a constant supply is needed.

Councillor Steve Jordan explained how the Parish's 'quota' for house building development had been achieved.

The meeting was opened for questions and this revealed widespread disquiet and anger at the Diocese's intentions and the way Church employees had conducted themselves. David Griffiths wished to avoid a "blame game". Several parishioners urged the PCC to take appropriate action in response to the conduct of certain clergy and other Diocesan employees. The PCC will raise these matters at its meeting with the Archdeacon, Robert Springett, to protest against the Diocese's actions to date and seek a restraint.

Given the apparent level of anger at and opposition to the Diocese's intentions and because all present felt strongly that the Parish had accepted as much development as was reasonable with the attainment of its quota, a vote was taken "that the Parish Council petition the Cotswold District Council to remove all of Willersey's glebe land, including the land known as 'Terrify', from the SHLAA" (Strategic Housing Land Availability Assessment). The vote was unanimously in favour of this proposition.

Robert McNeil-Wilson concluded the meeting by saying that revelations about the Diocese's intentions and the actions of church employees had been damaging to the Church of England and its Mission. He urged parishioners to remember that the Church of England in Willersey is not the ruthless, cynical employees pursuing this action on behalf of this uncaring Diocese; it remains the Church of the King James Bible and the Book of Common Prayer but most importantly, all it is all those people who call themselves members of the Church of England in the Parish of Saint Peter's, Willersey. He urged everyone to pray for victory in this campaign and for the Church of England. The Parish Council wishes to reiterate the thanks he expressed to all the people who attended.

A record of names and contact details was taken from those present to enable the PCC to keep them informed and involved in the campaign. Parishioners are urged to write to the bishop to express their opposition, making particular reference to the inevitable damage to Mission (i.e. Church of England congregation and membership numbers etc).

The Parochial Church Council, Saint Peter's Willersey

Copies of two of the many letters of protest sent to the Archdeacon and Bishop of Gloucester by Willersey Parishioners (names withheld)

Dear Archdeacon,

At the meeting in the Willersey village hall last evening attended by media representatives, Geoffrey Clifton-Brown MP, our local District Councillor and over 160 villagers , we heard from the PCC Vice-Chairman Lord Dear and the Senior Churchwarden of the apparent sharp practice that has been employed by diosacean officers in league with a national property developer and a national estate agent to push through plans to sell off the 37 acres of Willersey's greenfield glebe land for housing and industrial development before the arrival of the new bishop.

I wrote to the bishop on 14 August protesting about the sad state of affairs using information from the PCC that was available to parishioners. At last evening's meeting we heard more of the case, of the secretive and unannounced site meeting held on the land attended by the Team Vicar, the Parish Priest and representatives of the developer and the estate agent. We understand that the latter two people had been given to understand that the parishioners had been told of, and had accepted, the basic sale plan which had gone to the Church Commissioners because there had been no formal objections. There had been no objections because the warning letter to the churchwardens had been (probably intentionally) obscure and unclear. When the churchwarden sought help from the parish priest I understand that she claimed she too did not understand the letter although she had attended the site meeting some three days earlier.

I may well have misunderstood the facts of the case and would be delighted if you or your staff could advise me on the facts if I am wrong. While I am sure that Lord Dear will impress upon you the strength of feeling in Willersey when he meets you on 25th August, I send you this email to express my personal concern over the rather questionable adherence to 'best practice' demonstrated by the diocese in this matter. I have already copied the facts to the editor of Private Eye magazine as they collect such gems and I will do my best to ensure that other national media are informed.

A Cotswold Journal reporter was present at last evening's meeting and it would surely be appropriate if you or your colleagues could tell the press before their next issue that the Willersey glebe sale proposal had been halted pending a proper decision on the matter by the new bishop on her arrival next month.

Yours faithfully,

"Dog Fouling. To Whom It May Concern.

Recently I agreed with the Parish Council to mow a piece of grass on Blind Lane, near the entry to Willow Road. When I went to do it a few days ago it had a single but large dump of dog excrement on it. Apparently it appears to be someone else's responsibility to pick up this stuff and not the dog owner. Today (10th August), outside my front gate on the grass verge, there was an even larger amount of this mess, obviously from the same large dog. I do not blame the dog but the owner/walker. Whoever you are, allowing your dog's excrement to go uncollected is totally unacceptable and anti-social not to mention environmentally dangerous. You are irresponsible and bring all the many "good" dog owners in this beautiful village into potential disrepute and suspicion. I suggest you mend your ways immediately.

Peter Kimberley Homeleigh House."

A HUGE THANK YOU!

I would just like to thank everyone who supported my marathon training and fundraising events this year. I raised an amazing £2381.59 for the Alzheimer's Society thanks to the huge support of people in the village with various fundraising activities.

I have since raised a further £500 thanks to the support of Footlights in hosting a charity ball making the total almost £3000-amazing!

Thanks again!

Dear Bishop,

I am writing to oppose the development of Glebe land in Willersey, Gloucestershire. My grounds for objection are as follows:

1. That the proposal is in breach of best practice set out by the Church Commissioners and adopted by the Diocese, namely that sensitivity must be shown to local communities affected by the proposal. In fact this proposal shows a complete lack of sensitivity and will be damaging and life changing to the essential character of this Village.
2. That the mission of the Church of England would be severely damaged in a number of ways, including a lowered status of the Church; and set back attempts to increase the already existing low congregation attendance levels; will certainly have a further negative impact on the voluntary contributions to Church income; and will considerably increase the existing cynicism towards Church activity; and have a further detrimental impact on relations between the Diocese and its local representatives.
3. That the due process was not complied with, namely that proper notice was not given in the due form, preventing the parochial Church Council from having its views made known.

I hope you will be able to accept that my objection is reasonable and that the future of the Christian mission in traditional village society is not to harm the fragile cultural infrastructure that exists.

Our Village has 800 residents, 200 of which are under 25 years and need local jobs and reasonably priced housing, none of this is currently provided for in the Plans by the Developers or their clients.

Yours sincerely

September Notes from Your Parish Council

Fireworks At Farncombe

The PC received an apology from Farncombe Estate that the firework display in August was not on the list Ms Roe sent over to the PC. She has stressed to Foxhill Manor the importance of ensuring that are kept updated as and when the events are added. The following dates are scheduled for firework displays until the end of the year are: Saturday 26th September and Sunday 15th November – Provisional.

DOG FOULING ALONG BLIND LANE

Unfortunately, this is still occurring. Residents are asked to contact the clerk, in complete confidence, give the name of any individual who fails to pick up after their dog so the names can now be submitted formally to the District Council for prosecution.

WILLERSEY W.I.

The W.I. Annual Coffee Morning

Fortunately the weather was reasonably kind to us on the day and we managed to hold the event on Sawpit Green, with teas being served in the Jubilee Room. We attracted passing trade to the ever successful 'Fancy Good Stall'; the plant/produce and cake stalls are always popular; and it was hard to resist a gamble on the raffle with so many exciting prizes. Tesco supplied the biscuits to serve with the coffee. Contributions for the event were very generously supplied by many from the village – and not just W.I. members. It is really good to have that level of support and willing customers on the day. Thank you one and all.

We have raised £395.08 towards the Seniors' Christmas lunch on the 5th December.

Monday 14th September - Open Meeting - so all are welcome.

Margaret Clayton will talk about her years in the Home Office under the title of 'Never Say No'

This sounds like an opportunity to see how close the television series 'Yes, Minister' was to the truth!

Sue, Cathy and Jackie are the hostesses for the evening, Mal is providing the raffle prize and Jenny is responsible for table flowers.

The competition is 'A Political Cartoon'

NEWS FROM THE METHODISTS (Top of the Village)

Here comes the autumn! Our Harvest Festival will take place on 27 September and that will be just right – after the Horticultural Show. Do come and join us for some good singing!

Munch Bunch are getting ready for the September gathering. They could do with some help if you could give them just one half day a month – that is on the third Wednesday in the month. We need more help please! It's a popular event involving around 24 diners plus extra home deliveries. It's a very worthwhile day and gives a lot of pleasure to a lot of people! Thank you to the team!

The Community Room is ready for the four U3A groups that meet there regularly and the Leaders will be 'gearing up' for the autumn term. If you're interested in Engineering, Art History, Art Appreciation, or Sewing, get in touch with us. Croquet will carry on into the autumn, dependent upon the weather. Much more interest this year so you may have to book a place next year!

We will be starting Craft with our Coffee and Chat morning this September. Every Friday we meet from 10 until 11.30 – sometimes later depending on the chat! Please come along and join us for a knitting/sewing/crafting time together. All are welcome, even if you just want to sit and watch or join in the chat. Alison (from next door to the church) is going to help us get the quilts/comfort blankets up together, but if you have experience with this task please give us a ring or just come along. We could do with a bit of support on the 'joining together' of them all. One of our ladies has already done enough knitted squares for a blanket and there are some quilting pieces complete too! Busy ladies, thank you Mildred and Shirley!

If anyone has any special hospice, or hospital they would like to give a quilt/comfort blanket to then please let us know.

For information ring me, Penny, on 01386 853306, or David on 01386 853400.

FAMILY SERVICE 16th AUGUST.

Another Happy Event for our family service, we welcomed a smiling Charlotte Houel into our church for her baptism, she is the granddaughter of Mike and Sandy Barnes. It was lovely to see all the children playing in our Children's Church, several of these children joined in the story acting along with some adults.

Thank you to Jane for reading the lesson, to Daisy and Poppy for helping with the collection and finally Bill and Annie for making a welcome cup of coffee.

Next Family Service will be on September 20th and it is our Harvest Festival with Harvest lunch in church after the service. Please come and join in and there will be a chance to bring some produce for the service. We really hope you will join us for this important part of the church year.

WEDNESDAY CLUB

A reminder to all Clubbers that we re-start on the 2nd September with the AGM and 'Miscellany' (stories and poems by members). We can look forward to a very interesting and varied programme, leading up to our Christmas Lunch in December. The club always welcomes new members, so come along and enjoy an entertaining afternoon with friends followed by a delicious tea.

IN PRAISE OF WILLERSEY

Oh Willersey how still you sit
A precious jewel; a perfect fit
Among the gentle Cotswold Hills
So beautiful my heart it thrills.

In hope our village will always be
The lovely place that once wooed me
To dwell among its tranquil wolds
Where nature's richness life enfolds.
