‘Welcome one another, therefore, just as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God.’ Romans, chapter 15, verse 7 (NRSV)

Most years, for many years now, Ros, the dogs and I have headed to the far north of Scotland for our main holiday. I first went to the area where we stay back in 1989. Ros and I first went there together in 2004. It has become a special place for us – a little bit of ‘heaven on earth’.

When in the far north, we worship at Dornoch Cathedral, a place where, over the years, we have been made to feel part of the family. We’re always remembered, always welcomed (with, literally, open arms) and always made to feel that we belong. I realised recently that those who worship there week in and week out are striving to make real the welcome expressed in a sign that hangs on the main door of the Cathedral. The sign reads:

‘Welcome to those who are single, married, divorced, gay, straight, confused, filthy rich, comfortable or dirt poor.

Welcome if you can sing like Pavarotti or can’t sing a note.

Welcome if you’re just browsing, just woken up or just got out of prison.

Welcome if you’re still in recovery or still addicted.

Welcome to those who work too hard, aren’t in paid work at the moment or who have retired from work.

Welcome to those who don’t know anything about Church and are only here because Grandma is in town and wanted to visit the Cathedral.

Welcome to those who could use a prayer right now, those who have had religion shoved down their throat as a kid and those who live locally but have never come in before.

We don’t care if you’re more Christian than the Archbishop of Canterbury, or haven’t been in Church since little Jimmy’s christening.

We welcome tourists, seekers and doubters, saints and sinners, regulars, visitors, friends and strangers.’

What a generous welcome! There are numerous variations of this sign that I’ve seen over the years. Some might think that such signs are trite or even unnecessary but, to me, they are an important reminder that Christ welcomes into his presence everyone who would come to him and does so with amazing and abundant generosity because he loves each and every one of us.

Those of you who have attended services that I've led will often hear me say in my words of welcome, "Come just as you are and know that you're loved, accepted and welcome". I say those words because I believe them to be true, because I believe that that is how God welcomes us and because, as St Paul reminds us, that is how we are called to welcome others. What a privilege to show and share Christ's welcome in all of the places where God has called us to be.

With love,
Scott

WILLERSEY METHODIST CHURCH

At the moment – part of the Stratford upon Avon and Evesham
Circuit, but only until 1st September.

The boundaries have changed in the past. Some years ago Evesham Circuit had 17 chapels!!! Now we have 3! The rest of the Circuit is going to Warwickshire, and we three will be 'managed' by South Worcestershire Circuit based at St Andrew's Worcester. We have seen our new 'plan' for the next three months and it really is interesting that we have so many new 'Super Numeries' (Retired Ministers), so many local preachers and, having Israel still as our Circuit Minister in charge it is all new except where we live. Nothing changes except the bureaucracy and the number of leaders of services. Our first list of leaders in September shows this change.

The Coffee Morning for Christian Aid went really well and raised over £450. However, it has been decided by both St Peter's and us that we should look at other charities too. So we are starting to think about this. If you have any ideas which charity the two churches should support please let Scott, Robert, Richard or myself know.

Willersey Litter Picking

The youth of today!!

I would like to say what a pleasure it was to have Morgan & Poppy knock our door to speak to our children about doing a litter pick in the village. So, a couple of Sunday's ago we joined them, along with approximately 10 other children aged between 6-14yrs & 2 adults. Who went around the whole of the village picking up rubbish, leaving our village clean & tidy. Well done kids, great to see you care. They're hoping to do another one before the end of the summer holidays & hopefully there won't be so much to collect.

Lucy Bearcroft

Broadway Embroidery Group

Our August meeting was a trip to Croome Court.

Meeting in the car park at Croome we strolled down to the house in warm sunshine. Some chose to lunch first, while others chose to seek out our butterflies. I don't think anyone was disappointed with the display "Changing Perspectives". There was such a varied selection of embroidery produced by Worcestershire Embroidery Guild. It was "Thank You" to Jane Bayes, a member of the Guild and also a member of our group who invited us to take part in the butterfly project.

In the afternoon we all met up again for a guided tour of the walled garden. The custodian of the garden gave a very detailed history of the garden and also explained ongoing plans for the area. Afterwards we were very grateful to sit in the shade and enjoy refreshments. A few of us indulged in a little retail therapy before going our separate ways.

Next month our meeting will be on Thursday 5th September 10am to 1pm. 'Sit and Sew' own projects. Please bring along any craft item you would like to share with the group.

Willersey WI - August Events

No meetings in August but this hasn't stopped the girls getting together for more coffee and cakes. Our Annual Coffee Morning in aid of the 'Seniors' Lunch' and 'Caring Hands' was a resounding success.

We entertained 60 guests and thanks to their generosity and the hard work of the group and friends of the WI we raised an outstanding £630. We are truly lucky to live in such a supportive village.

Our next Village activity is the Horticultural Show. Cakes, jams, produce and photographs to be judged and some of you may even persuade your men to enter the 'Men Only Cake' competition. We have our usual produce stand under the Jubilee Tree, organised this year by Gi, so please, any cakes, jams or produce would be gratefully received. Annie is running the Tea Shop from Taylor's Garage, so cakes to serve with tea would be much appreciated.

Our next meeting is in the Village Hall on Monday 9th September, 7.15. I was going to say it should be uplifting, but that's a bit of a cliché, as Mary Pawsey from Pershore is talking about 'Bra Fitting'.

We look forward to catching up with everyone and warmly welcome any guests.

MACMILLAN COFFEE MORNING

Jean and Bill Smith have run the Macmillan Coffee Morning for many years, raising many hundreds of pounds. They have now handed the baton on to a group of willing volunteers. Jean will still be very much in charge; and Bill would say it was always thus.

We look forward to seeing you to share a coffee and cake and easing some money from your pockets to aid this valuable cause. Any donations of cakes or raffle prizes and offers of help would be most welcome.

A teacher was finishing up a lesson on the joys of discovery and the importance of curiosity. "Where would we be today," she asked, "if no one had ever been curious?" There was a pause, and then one child ventured: "In the garden of Eden Miss?"

Nature Box - (Sea) gulls

There seems to be an acceptance that seagulls should be referred to as gulls as they are now to be found inland for much of the year.

Gulls have for a long time been present inland during winter time, often seen when following the plough for tasty uncovered morsels. But nowadays they are more regularly observed throughout the year, encouraged by changes in life style with fast foods and rubbish tips (oops - recycling centres) which offer even richer pickings. Consequently gulls have become quite adept and opportunistic at living along side us, as I can testify with a piece of chicken being plucked off my plate during a leisurely outdoor lunch. Even Prime Minister David Cameron (remember him?) had a ham sandwich snatched on a seaside holiday.

Willersey has its fair share of gulls: herring gulls and black backed gulls mainly. Gulls can be quite tricky to tell apart as plumage varies with immature birds. Black headed gulls are more easily recognised, although when looked at closely the head is actually a chocolate brown and then only during the summer months. Still, identification isn't everything. Sometimes just watching them wheeling in the sky, adding to what we see locally, can be more rewarding than knowing exactly what species we are looking at.

And, while most of us aren't looking our swallows are busy gathering together to follow the swifts and head to Africa.

If you'd like to comment or contribute to Nature Box or report interesting local sightings please email Bob Topp at willerseynaturebox@gmail.com

Weston Rural cinema: September

After the summer break, and as the evenings draw in, our September film is the “feel good” “Fisherman’s Friends”. A fast-living, cynical London music executive heads to a remote Cornish village for a stag weekend. A schoolboy prank played by his boss leads to him trying to sign a group of shanty singing fishermen. He becomes the ultimate “fish out of water” as he struggles to gain the respect or enthusiasm of the unlikely boy band and their families who value friendship and community over fame and fortune. As he's drawn deeper into the traditional Cornish way of life he's forced to re-evaluate his own integrity and ultimately question what success really means.

The film will be shown in Weston-sub-Edge Village Hall on Thursday 26th September. Doors will open at 7.30 p.m. and the film begins at 8.00 p.m. Tickets are £4.00 at the door. For more information contact Chris Rossington on 01386 849316 or find details on the village website, www.westonsubedge.com. New faces are always welcome.

The Village Bar will be open from 4.00 p.m. for a pre-cinema supper. Becky serves excellent food at very competitive prices. For more details contact becci.white@btinternet.com or drop into the bar one weekend and collect a menu.

Who's Under the Hat Scarecrows

Thank you to everyone who found time to take part in this year's Scarecrow Trail - and didn't they look brilliant.

A fabulous 28 wonderful scarecrows in the trail this year, plus the Collin Close cricketers scene that popped up announced for a bit of fun. Loads of skill and imagination capturing people's attention and giving us all a cheery antidote to the gloom that often seems to dominate the news. Brilliant. Thank you all. Bob Topp

It was just a bit of fun, but for the record following the voting by you all, the adjudged winners were Carole & Gary Taylor with “Cowboy Builders”, closely followed by “Expect Delays” by Gi & Pete Kavanagh and “This Way; That Way” by The Sparrow Family.

Family Service

Our family service for August was a calm and meaningful occasion with holy Communion taken around a small altar below the central tower, Gentle music was played whilst everyone assembled.

Jean read the lesson from Mark’s gospel. Thank you also to Adine and Ken for the prayers. After the service with refreshments by the F.A.S.T. everyone was able to sit and chat.

Our next service will be a joint Harvest Festival with the Methodists at 11am in St Peter’s Church. Please feel free to bring along any produce that you can spare.
